

Malaysia v Indonesia match facts

1. Malaysia are unbeaten in two World Cup qualifying meetings with Indonesia. This is the first time Malaysia will host Indonesia in a World Cup qualifier.
2. Indonesia last beat Malaysia away in 2005 and have since gone three matches without an away win against Malaysia.
3. Norshahrul Idlan Talaha has played in six of Malaysia's last seven meetings with Indonesia since 2010, scoring just once - in a 5-1 defeat to Indonesia in the 2010 AFF Cup group stage in Jakarta. He failed to score in the next 5 times he lined up against Indonesia. He did not play in the 2016 friendly defeat in Solo.
4. Matthew Davies, Shahrul Saad, Baddrol Bakhtiar, Brendan Gan and Safawi Rasid are the only players in the current squad to have played in Malaysia's last defeat to Indonesia in 2016. Khairul Azhan Khalid and Adam Nor Azlin were unused substitutes.
5. Aside from Norshahrul, Aidil Zafuan Radzak (2), Farizal Marlias (2), Baddrol Bakhtiar (2), Matthew Davies (2), Shahrul Saad (2), Brendan Gan (2) and Safawi Rasid (2) are the others in the current squad to have faced Indonesia more than once.
6. Aidil (2008 & 2012) and Farizal (2012 & 2019) have never been on the losing side when facing Indonesia.
7. The last player to miss a penalty in a fixture between these two teams was Indonesia's Firman Utina in the 2010 AFF Cup final 2nd leg in Jakarta.
8. Malaysia's last home defeat against Indonesia in the 2004-05 AFF Cup semi-finals was a painful one when the hosts conceded 4 goals in the last 30 minutes. Malaysia won the first leg 2-1 away and led 1-0 at half-time in the 2nd leg for a 3-1 aggregate advantage but crashed to a 4-1 defeat in Bukit Jalil.
9. The last time Malaysia secured back-to-back wins against Indonesia was in 1989 - at the Thai King's Cup and KL Sea Games.
10. Malaysia assistant coach S. Balachandran scored in Malaysia's 3-1 win over Indonesia at the 1989 Thai King's Cup in Bangkok.
11. The last player to score a hat-trick in a fixture in between these two countries was Salehan Mat Som in Malaysia's 6-1 win in a group stage match and again in a 4-1 win in the final of the 1987 Sultan Hassanah Bolkiah Cup, also known as the Brunei Merdeka Games. These two matches were rather peculiar in that Malaysia and Indonesia were represented not by their national teams but by a state and a club team respectively. The Johor state team represented Malaysia while PSIS Semarang represented Indonesia in the tournament. Strangely, all matches in the six-team tournament were recognised as full 'A' internationals by FIFA.
12. Malaysia's fairytale run in qualifying for the 1980 Olympics included a 6-1 win over Indonesia at the Merdeka Std, which saw 2 players - Hassan Sani and Khalid Ali - score hat-tricks.

13. The last time Malaysia beat a side ranked in FIFA's top-100 was Indonesia when they were ranked 91st in December 2004.

14. Zaquan Adha Radzak's 8 goals for Malaysia in 2018 was the highest in a calendar year since Rusdi Suparman scored 15 in 2000.

15. Mohamadou Sumareh and Safawi Rasid need 2 goals each against Indonesia to surpass Syafiq Ahmad (5) as Malaysia's top international scorer for 2019.

16. Azman Adnan holds the Malaysian record of most goals in a single World Cup qualifying campaign with six goals for the 1994 edition. Five of those goals came in two matches against Macau. With at least four matches remaining in this campaign, that record is in danger of being broken with Sumareh and Shahrel Fikri Fauzi each having scored four goals in this campaign.

Other 2019 goal scorers not in the squad: Shahrel Fikri Fauzi (4 goals), Faiz Nasir (2 goals)

Note: 1. The above statistics includes appearances and goals in all international matches, whether classed as FIFA 'A' internationals or not

2. Some reports, including FAM's, credit Sumareh with scoring twice on his debut in Malaysia's 4-1 win over Sri Lanka in 2018. The 1st of those goals, however, was clearly an own goal by a Sri Lankan player and is reflected as such in the above statistics.
